WITH A CONVICT'S WIFE.-The scandal about the Rev. James A. Triffitt, chaplain of the Ohio penitentiary, has grown to such an extent that Warden James has brought it before the board of managers, who are now in session in Columbus, for its investigation. Chaplain Triffitt lives at 545 Kilbourne street, and his wife has been away at her parents' home for two months or more. The scandal grows out of the alleged visit of the wife of a convict to the Triflitt home.

Mrs. William C. Shepherd, who resides at 544 Kilbourne street, was seen at her home Wednesday morning by a reporter, to whom she made this state-

"The first time I noticed anything "The first time I noticed anything wrong at the Triflitt residence was the night before Memorial Day. I was in my room, the windows of which are directly opposite and on a level with those of Mr. Triflitt. I looked across the street and saw him with a woman. The shutters were closed, the movable slats being open, but a bright light was burning in the room. I have since seen the same woman enter his house at different hours during the day and night. "When my husband and I retired on Sunday night I opened the shutters and raised the blinds on the front windows of my room. I awoke about 5:30 o'clock Monday morning, and as soon as I got

Monday morning, and as soon as I got up I looked out of the window to see if any of the neighbors were astir. When I looked out the first object to attract my attention was in the room of Mr.
Triffit. I called my husband's attention to what I had observed. My husband called to Mr. Triffit to 'pull down the blinds.

"On another occasion I saw Mr. Triffit give the same woman some money at the corner of Spruce and Kilbourne

Mrs. Shepherd describes the woman she saw as being well dressed and attractive. On one occasion, Mrs. Shepherd says, the woman came to the house about 4 o'clock in the afternoon during about 4 o clock in the alternoon during a heavy rain, and Mr. Triffit opened the door for her. Mrs. Shepherd's husband corroborates her in every particular. Chaplain Triffit has sent in his resignation to the board of managers of the penitentiary, and it has been accepted. This move on his part is looked on as a virtual acknowledgment of the truth of the charges against him.

A Little Pleasant Rivalry with a Solid Substratum.

We will give two inches of advertising space We will give two inches of advertising space for six months in the Alexandria Gazette to the dealer in Alexandria who shall buy and pay for the largest amount of our shoes between the first of March and the first of September, 1892, provided only that our shoes are mentioned in each issue of the space for the period named. Three months to second largest huyer; six weeks to third largest. This simply illustrates our anxiety to have every lady and child in Alexandria walk in Alexandria-made shoes. We will see that the ladies need never blush to say that their shoes are home-made, and if economy is wealth, we simply illustrates our anxiety to have every lady and child in Alexandria walk in Alexandria home-made, and if economy is wealth, we venture nothing in guaranteeing you wealth, as wearers of our shoes.
